

School Policies

Make-up Classes

- Missed classes may be made up by appointment only.
- Students are permitted a maximum of three make-ups per semester. If your child's class falls on a school holiday, (except for winter and spring break) you are entitled to make up the class anytime within the semester.
- Unused make-ups cannot be carried into the next semester.
- If you are unable to attend your scheduled make-up, please call or email to cancel.
- We do not schedule make-ups during the first week of the semester or Parents' Week.

Ballet Studio Courtesies

- Try your best to always be on time for class.
- Parents and caregivers must be present while children are not in class.
- Strollers should be folded whenever possible and placed in the stroller room or stowed under the benches. Strollers should not be left blocking walkways.
- Children should not run on the premises and are expected to use their indoor voices.
- Please be sure to clean up after eating.
- We do our best to keep the school a nut-free facility. Please only bring nut-free snacks into the ballet school.
- Valuables should not be left unattended. The school is not responsible for lost articles.
- We appreciate your help in keeping the studio clean and safe.

Dress Code

- Dress code requirements must be followed.
- Necklaces, bracelets, skirts, tutus and leg warmers are not permitted in class.
- Skirts, attached or unattached to leotards, are not allowed.
- Hair should be neatly pulled back for class.

Petit Dancers (18-24 months): Comfortable play clothes and bare feet. (The dress code rules above do not apply to this age group.)

Petit Dancers (age 2) and Pre-ballet: Girls wear a pink leotard, pink tights and pink ballet slippers. Boys wear a white tee shirt, black tights or sweatpants and black ballet slippers.

Tap: Girls wear any solid color leotard, pink or black tights, and tap shoes.
